

9/11 DAY

National Day of Remembrance and Service

It is six months from today!

“Never Forgetting” requires backwards planning, so get started. Add these dates and events to your school calendar now and find free resources at www.LearnAndServeTampa.org

Thursday and Friday, September 12-13

Lessons on consequences, reflection and care-taking activities for memorials

Wednesday, September 11, 2024.

A Day of Service so youth will see the power of people working together to make a better world.

Monday and Tuesday, September 9-10

Days to learn about the causes of the event and projects to remember those we lost.

Pre-planning Week (1 month before)

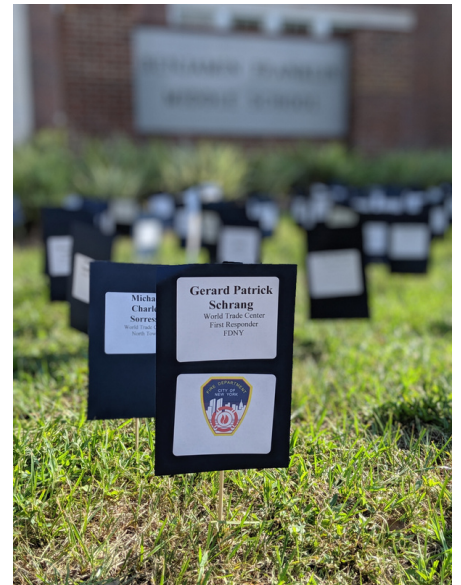

Plan lessons and service opportunities

Summer Communications (2-3 months before)

Core planning committee talks; invites to officials, first responders, project sponsors.

Spring Planning (4-5 months before)

Brainstorm with students and faculty about community needs for a service project and ideas for remembering the victims of 9/11.
